

mirocomachiko

Professional painter and author of Children's books. Born in Osaka, Japan. Drawing animals vividly, she held her exhibition in the country and overseas. Received a grand prize of the 18th Japan national picture books award with the picture book 'Ookami ga tobuhi' . Received a prize of the 45th Kodansha publishing culture award with the picture book 'Tetsuzo wa ne.' , and a prize of Shogakkan Children publishing culture award with the picture book 'Boku no futon wa umide dekiteiru.' At Bienále ilustrácií Bratislava, received a gold apple prize with 'Ore to kiiro' , and a gold prize with 'Kemono no nioiga shitekitazo.' She has many other publication of her books. Held her exhibition 'Ikimono no oto ga kikoeru' nationwide. She also makes illustrations for books, CD jackets and advertising posters. In 2014, she participated in creation of the Christmas window displays at Shinjuku Isetan department store, which is the biggest and most popular department store in Japan. Since Spring 2016, she is illustrating mainly for the song of the TV show from NHK, 'Kore Nande Shokai' .